To Whom It May Concern:

If you are reading this letter you are probably interested in using the services of Occupational Assessment Services, Inc. As an attorney who has occasion to use their services, I can recommend them without reservation. The cooperation and professionalism they bring to each task make them a valuable working partner and litigation asset.

We have been able to substantiate damages using the services of OAS, Inc. that would have been impossible to prove otherwise. We have been satisfied each and every time we have used their services and, so have our clients. Please feel free to contact me at the above number, should you wish to discuss their work further.

Sincerely,

Richard P. Crossin
